

GUIDE to Member Benefits

AMERICAN NUMISMATIC
ASSOCIATION

Discover the World of Money

Membership in the American Numismatic Association comes with benefits designed to help you better enjoy the hobby and save you money. Many of these benefits can be accessed online, so as a first step log in to your online account at www.money.org.

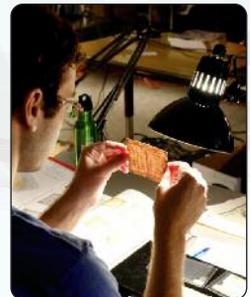

BECOME A SMARTER, MORE CONFIDENT COLLECTOR WITH THESE ESSENTIAL ANA RESOURCES:

The Numismatist – The gold standard of hobby publications, each monthly issue is packed full of gems you won't read about any place else. The full-color magazine features illustrated articles written by leading numismatic experts covering coins, tokens, medals and paper money ... plus hobby events, coinage issues from across the globe, and advertising by respected coin dealers. You can receive the award-winning publication by mail (at the Platinum membership level) or delivered to your email inbox (the Gold membership level). And as a member, you can read issues from the past year at www.money.org/digital-magazines.

The Numismatist Digital Archives – Members also have FREE digital access to all 128 volumes of The Numismatist, from 1888 to the present – through Exact Editions. The online editions look exactly like the printed originals, allowing you to experience The Numismatist in its historical context. Each archived page can be downloaded and printed, as well as bookmarked, cited and referenced by registered users. Visit www.money.org/thenumismatist/digitalarchives to get started.

Florence Schook School of Numismatics – The ANA offers the best educational programs in numismatics, whether you're new to the hobby or a seasoned collector. Learn about grading, counterfeit detection and more at the annual one- or two-week Summer Seminar in Colorado Springs. Or attend one- to three-day seminars in conjunction with ANA conventions and other regional coin shows. Can't travel to a hands-on workshop? ANA correspondence courses can expand your knowledge from the comfort of your home. Learn more at www.money.org/school-of-numismatics.

World's Fair of Money® and National Money Show® – Members receive FREE admission to the biggest, most educational coin shows in the country. Build your collection from the best numismatic inventory anywhere, attend lectures and seminars, and view rare historical treasures from the ANA Money Museum and private collections. Members can pre-register and receive their show access credentials by mail in advance of the show. Plus, members are admitted to the bourse floor 30 minutes before the public. www.money.org/events

Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library – Borrow research materials from the world's largest numismatic lending library. More than 128,000 books, auction catalogs, videos, DVDs and slide sets can be mailed to you for just the cost of postage. Contact the library staff to help locate materials to best suit your needs, or request materials through the online catalog. Research, article searches and photocopying/scanning services of library materials are available for an additional fee. Visit www.money.org/library.

Edward C. Rochette Money Museum – Members receive FREE admission to the Money Museum in Colorado Springs, the largest museum of its kind dedicated to numismatics. Galleries feature rare and valuable historical treasures, including a 1913 Liberty Head nickel, two of the 15 known 1804 dollars, the famous Bebee collection of U.S. paper money, and the Harry W. Bass Jr. collection of American gold coinage and pattern coins. Many rarities and select exhibits can be seen virtually. Visit www.money.org/money-museum.

Engage with a vibrant community

Join a Coin Club – The ANA has more than 400 local, regional and specialty member clubs. The club directory can help you find a club based on your location and/or collecting interest. After all, collecting is more fun when you can share your passion and learn from fellow hobbyists! To search our online directory for ANA clubs by name, zip code or specialty, visit www.money.org/club-directory.

Find a Dealer – ANA member dealers must agree to abide by a strict Code of Ethics, so you can feel confident that you are trading with reputable firms. Locate dealers by using our online dealer directory where you can search by business name, location or specialty: www.money.org/find-a-dealer.

Inspire a Young Collector – Young numismatists are the future of the hobby and the ANA sponsors several programs geared toward beginning collectors: Coins for A's, the Ancient Coin Project, and coin auctions reserved just for youngsters, to name but a few. Summer Seminar scholarships also are available to active young numismatists. Visit www.money.org/young-numismatists to learn more.

Volunteer – Consider volunteering your time and knowledge at ANA conventions, as a club representative, as a mentor, as an exhibitor, or at the Money Museum in Colorado Springs.
