

ANA RECOGNIZES TOP VOLUNTEERS IN REPRESENTATIVE PROGRAM

On the occasion of its 111th Anniversary Convention in New York City, the American Numismatic Association (ANA) announced its annual awards to distinguished volunteers in the Representative Program.

Selected from a number of topnotch nominees were:

- Outstanding Club Representative - •, who represents the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Coin Club. An active promoter of numismatics and the ANA, Fanton works continuously with his club to promote both the hobby and the Association in his community.
- Helen Carmody-Lebo Memorial Award for Outstanding District Delegate - • of Elko, Nevada. An ANA life member, Dunn continually promotes numismatics and the Association in Nevada, recruiting new members, promoting the organization at local coin shows and providing information to coin clubs.
- Terry Armstrong Memorial Award for Outstanding Regional Coordinator - • of Tucson, Arizona. Excelling in his volunteer efforts to promote the hobby and the ANA, Tumonis has performed exceedingly well as regional coordinator for Region 6, which covered Arizona, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. In his unwavering leadership position, he has represented the ANA at numerous coin shows, presented programs and written articles for hobby publications. Tumonis is a volunteer always ready to lend a hand, no matter how big or small the task.

---

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its 28,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars. For more information, call 719-632-2646 or go to www.money.org.