ANA Invites Speakers to Charlotte National Money Show™ March 16-18, 2007

All ANA members are invited to share their research, creativity and knowledge with fellow collectors and enthusiasts by delivering a Numismatic Theatre presentation at the National Money Show™ in Charlotte, NC, March 16-18.

Numismatic Theatre is an educational highlight of every ANA Convention. Consisting of hourly presentations on a variety of subjects and issues, the program gives members a chance to offer and discuss their research and ideas with the numismatic community. Theatre talks already scheduled for Charlotte include Silver, Gold & The Wizard of Oz and The Coinage of Christianity: From Babylon to Ethiopia.

Anyone interested in giving a Numismatic Theatre presentation may submit a proposal form online at www.money.org (Select "Education" from the "Explore the World of Money" drop-down menu, and then select "Numismatic Theatre and Sundman Lecture Series at Conventions"). Theatre program videos and DVDs from past conventions are available for members to check out from the ANA Library (library@money.org).

For questions about Numismatic Theatre at the Charlotte National Money Show™, please contact the ANA Outreach Department by calling 719-482-9869 or by email outreach@money.org.

The American Numismatic Association is a nonprofit educational organization dedicated to educating and encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. With nearly 33,000 members, the Association serves the academic community, collectors and the general public with an interest in numismatics.

The ANA helps all people discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of programs including its education and outreach, museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars. For more information about the ANA, call 719-632-2646 or visit www.money.org.
