Call for ANA Award Nominations

(Colorado Springs, CO) The American Numismatic Association seeks nominations for awards to be presented at its 115th Anniversary Convention Aug. 16-19 in Denver, Colo.

"Members make the American Numismatic Association a magnificent organization. They bring the highest of ideals and an abundance of enthusiasm to the hobby of numismatics," said Executive Director, Christopher Cipoletti. "I invite you to join us in recognizing the contributions made by your fellow numismatists."

All nominations must include the name and address of the nominee along with background information and qualifications. The purpose and criteria for each award along with a nomination form are available on the "Members Only" section of the ANA website at www.money.org or directly from ANA Awards Coordinator Susan McMillan at 719-482-9850 or mcmillan@money.org.

The American Numismatic Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to educating and encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. With nearly 33,000 members, the Association serves the academic community, collectors and the general public with an interest in numismatics. The ANA helps all people discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of programs including its education and outreach, museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
