Election ballots, as well as candidate photographs and biographies/platforms, will be sent by the independent auditing firm of BiggsKofford, P.C., to eligible voting ANA members. The envelope, with a BiggsKofford return address, will indicate that an official election ballot is enclosed. Ballots will be mailed by June 15 and must be returned to the auditing firm by July 15. Election results will be announced on July 27 with the new Board of Governors sworn in at the ANA's World's Fair of Money convention banquet in Chicago on August 19.

Nine of the candidates attended an open candidates' forum during the National Money Show in Sacramento; a video of the event will be posted in April at www.money.org and on www.cointelevision.com. Candidates also will answer an election questionnaire, with responses published in the June issue of The Numismatist and posted in May at www.money.org.
