Heritage Donates $1,500 for ANA Youth Memberships

Heritage Auction Galleries donated $1,500 in memberships for young collectors to the American Numismatic Association. As a result, more than 75 one-year memberships were given at the Portland National Money Show™, March 13-15.

The ANA welcomed more than 400 Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts to four merit badge and patch workshops in Portland. At each of the workshops, 15 memberships were awarded. Throughout the course of the show, memberships were also given to youth who displayed promise as numismatists.

"We are proud of our longtime support for ANA youth programs," said Bob Korver, Director Emeritus at Heritage. "It's our hope that the many benefits of ANA membership can further inspire these young collectors to become more active in our hobby."

Heritage Auction Galleries is based in Dallas. For more information, visit www.HA.com.

The American Numismatic Association is a nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its 32,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
